Bridges Cemetery opens for Memorial Day

THE COLONY, Texas – Bridges Cemetery will be open to the public from 10 a.m. to noon on Memorial Day, Monday, May 25, weather permitting.

To honor those buried in Bridges Cemetery, members of The Colony Public Library's Local History Committee will be on site to give tours, answer questions about The Colony's history, and place flags on Civil War veterans' graves. Copies of the committee's publication, Bridges to the Future, will be available to purchase for $10.

Bridges Cemetery is located at the northwest corner of Morningstar and Chesapeake in The Colony.

For information, call The Colony Public Library at 972-625-1900, ext. 3, or email Technical Services Librarian Megan Charters at mcharters@thecolonypl.org.
